DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's preliminary amendment dated 08/02/01 to amend the specification for proper headings; amendment to Claims 1 and 3; and the amendment to the Abstract have all been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, Claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 08/04/2003 is acknowledged. Please cancel nonelected claims.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 2, line 23 is the word "omitted," supposed to be "incorporated?" Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. Claims 2 and 3 recite the limitation "cloth structure." There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. For all practical purposes the Examiner believes that Applicant is simply further limiting Claim 1. Please clarify and correct.

7. Also, in subheading (A) of claim 1, what is meant by being freely stretchable? Is Applicant implying that the fabric is a nonwoven or a knit?

8. Claim 1 contains the trademark/trade name LYCRA. Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe the yarn of the outer cloth layer and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite.

Art Unit: 1771

Double Patenting

9. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

10. Claims 1-3 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the claims of U.S. Patent No. 5607746. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because appear to be obvious variants of one another.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

11. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

12. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USPN 5,607,746 issued to Byungnam.

13. Byungnam discloses a cloth for waterproof suits comprising a rubber waterproof layer in which circular or rectangular holes are formed at a population of 10 to 500 per ten square centimeters, a moisture-permeable waterproof polyurethane coating layer and two flexible cloth layers, wherein the moisture-permeable waterproof polyurethane layer is made in a wet process and a dry process and the opposite surfaces of the rubber waterproof layer each bind to the polyurethane layer and one of the flexible cloth layers through adhesive layers, the other flexible cloth layer being formed on the polyurethane layer. The adhesive layers may contain ceramic powder capable of emitting far infrared rays. The adhesive layers containing such ceramic powders, when elevating temperature or illuminating light, emits infrared rays, which are easily absorbed in organic materials, showing various profitable effects including deodorization as well as warmth-keeping, sterilization and anti-putrefaction. A waterproof suit made of the cloth has various profitable influences on the skin and prevents the bad odor attributable to sweat or moisture. After using, the waterproof suit can, even though remaining undried, prevent the propagation of fungi and bad odor. Therefore, it is very sanitary (Abstract).
